

My bag is delayed, what should I do?

We sincerely apologize for the delay of your luggage, and for any inconvenience this may have caused. To get your luggage back to you as quickly as possible, here's the next steps:

- Find a Frontier representative at the airport to report the delay to a checked item within 4 hours of arriving at your destination.
- If you were unable to or could not report the delay to a Frontier representative at the airport, you can report the damage to our Central Baggage Office through either of these options:
  - Fill out our Delayed Baggage Form.
