

Do I get a refund if my flight is changed or cancelled by Frontier?

We will provide a refund for a cancelled flight if you do not travel on the protection options we offer. This refund will be for your fare, as well as any optional services paid for the flights you do not take, including seat assignments and baggage. Please check your email associated with the booking for more information about your options.

For a refund, please fill out our online refund request form.
